Treasury Department.
Registers Office, January 5, 1790.

Some misapprehension having arisen relative to the payment of interest on certificates issued from this office. Notice is hereby given, that interest for interest will be paid as usual on the registered debt to the 1st of December 1787; and also, that new certificates continue to issue from this office in exchange for cancelled Loan Office and Final Settlement certificates.

By order of the Secretary of Treasury,

JOSEPH NOURSE, Register.

The several Printers throughout the United States, are requested to give this notice a place in their respective papers.

NOTICE.

Is hereby given, that I intend to petition the next Assembly to confirm a title to me in the lands that were eleceted from Robert McKenzie, in the district of Kentucky, for the use of a public school.

W. MCKENZIE.

PEYTON SHORT & CO.

Have for sale at their store in Lexington, a considerable assortment of DRY goods, hard ware and groceries, which they will sell on reasonable terms for cash, tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, pork, beef, bacon, hemp, flour, lurs of every kind, tar, pitch and turpentine, &c & &c.

They flatter themselves they have given general satisfaction to those who have already favoured them with their custom, for it has been their wish and shall be their study, although they receive every species of country produce, to sell upon the moderate advance, to sell upon the Philadelphia cost, as any Merchant in the district.

SAM. LAMME.

March 1790.

LONDON, December 3.

The affairs of Europe never wore so singular and even whimsical an aspect as at present:

The Head of the house of Austria oppressing the Catholic Church; and the Catholic Church offering the riches of the Sacred Temples at the Shrine of Liberty! The patriots of Holland refugees in Brabant, and the patriots of Brabant refugees in Holland! Prussia, the restraint of Dutch, and hope of Flemish freedom! The great Protestant Alliance of England, Prussia, and Holland, considered as the shield of the most zealous Catholics in the world.

Jan. 7. The flame of liberty has at length reached even Rome, where the populace, headed by many of the most ancient families, have already demanded a municipal and free government. His holiness the pope was at Frecati, when our advices left Italy, but his return was fixed for Christmas eve when his categorical answer to the popular requisitions was looked for.

AMERICAN OCCURRENCES.

PHILADELPHIA April 15. Extract of a letter from Baltimore, dated March 20.

The French consul at this place says, he is credibly informed that the King of France has left Paris, and made his escape to Liege."

On Wednesday last was landed, from the ship Amsterdam packet a large quantity of dollars. The balance of trade formerly so much against us, appears now to be in our favor. Instead of European vessels entering our ports loaded, and returning with the specie of our country, we now find them coming to us for loading, and bringing specie to pay for it.

LEXINGTON, June 7.

On the 3d of May last, Mr. John Garnet near the mouth of Cain run in Woodford County, lost a calf which was supposed to have gone into a cave at the head of a spring; the cave was examined some distance under ground, but as they proceeded the passage was obstructed by a large current of water, upon which they had a boat built and proceeded by water up the stream about three quarters of a mile, when they overtook the Calf, which they recovered, and brought down to the mouth again; They saw no appearance of an end to the passage, the appearance as large where they stopped as at any other place. They were provided with candles to see their way.

Kentucky Antiquity.

About 5 miles North Eastwardly from Lexington, on Elk Horn waters is a lead mine, which has been opened, and a very considerable quantity of Ore and stone thrown out. The vein of Ore is a North and South direction, and has been worked about 350 yards. The Ore and spar that was thrown up, is covered with earth ten or twelve inches deep; whether this earth was thrown on the ore and stone in order to conceal it, or whether nature has formed the soil on the bank since the work was done, is a matter of doubt; as is also the time when the work was done, for it has an old appearance, as any of the old fortifications, that are common to be found in this country.

Near this mine a large Conque shell was found a few years ago, which had never been used by any person as a blowing horn, as there was no opening from the outside to the small part of the spiral cavity.
